

COMPANY

The Tony Award-Winning Musical

Music & Lyrics by Stephen Sondheim

book by George Furth

Directed by Jonathan Berry

September 25 – November 14, 2010

at Stage 773 (formerly Theatre Building Chicago)

Stephen Sondheim's and George Furth's landmark Tony Award-winning musical looks at the life of Robert, a 35 year old bachelor who has been unable to connect in a long-term relationship. COMPANY is the first of the Sondheim and Harold Prince (director) collaborations that laid the foundation of what would become the "Golden Age" of Broadway musicals. Directed by Jonathan Berry, COMPANY boasts some of Sondheim's most memorable songs.

NO MORE DEAD DOGS

A Comedy about the Horrors of Literature

based on the novel by Gordon Korman

Adapted for the stage by William Massolia

Directed by Dorothy Milne

April 30 - June 19, 2011

at Theatre Wit

Wallace Wallace's (who's first name is the same as his last) school book review is not exactly what his teacher was expecting. The assignment was to give an honest opinion about the classic book, Old Shep, Old Pal." But, Wallace Wallace is a boy who never lies, all because his dad couldn't tell a story without lying. The choice to never lie turns out to be a bad idea because "Old Shep, Old Pal" is a book he absolutely hates. He writes: The most interesting part came on the last page where it said "The End." Now Wallace is serving detention because sometimes telling the truth can get you into more trouble than lying.

Plus, one more production yet to be announced

Directed by Jonathan Berry

February – March 2011 at a Venue to be announced
